 WELCOME MESSAGE

Dear friends and colleagues,

Like every year, this year too, Indian Society of Hypertension has decided to organize its 27th National Congress at India Habitat Centre, New Delhi on 1st, 2nd and 3rd September 2017.

We invite you all to become part of this great academic event as hypertension is growing fast as a serious health problem across the world including India.

This congress shall be addressed by speakers of National and International repute and we are confident that participants shall get new insight for the management of hypertension.

ABOUT DELHI

Delhi officially the National Capital Territory of Delhi or NCT, is a city and a union territory of India. It is bordered by Haryana on three sides and by Uttar Pradesh to the east. The NCT covers an area of 1,484 square kilometres (573 sq mi). According to 2011 census, Delhi's city population was about 11 million, the second highest in India after Mumbai, while the whole NCT population was about 16.8 million, making it the world's 4th largest city proper by population.

TOURIST ATTRACTION

India Gate

The India Gate, (originally called the All India War Memorial), is a war memorial located astride the Rajpath, New Delhi. India Gate is a memorial to 82,000 soldiers of the Indian Army who died in the period 1914–21 in the First World War. The All-India War Memorial in New Delhi was designed by Edwin Lutyens.

Qutub Minar

Qutub Minar is a minaret that forms part of the Qutb complex, a UNESCO World Heritage Site in the Mehrauli area of Delhi, India. Made of red sandstone and marble, Qutub Minar is a 73-metre (240 feet) tall tapering tower of five storeys, with a 14.3 metre (47 feet) base diameter, reducing to 2.7 metres (9 feet) at the peak.

Red Fort

The Red Fort is a historical fort in the city of Delhi in India. It was the main residence of the emperors of the Mughal dynasty for nearly 200 years, until 1857. It is located in the center of Delhi and houses a number of museums. Constructed in 1639 by the fifth Mughal Emperor Shah Jahan.

Lotus Temple

The Lotus Temple, located in Delhi, India, is a Bahá'í House of Worship completed in 1986. Notable for its flowerlike shape, it has become a prominent attraction in the city. Like all Bahá'í Houses of Worship, the Lotus Temple is open to all, regardless of religion or any other qualification.

Akshardham

Akshardham or Swaminarayan Akshardham complex is a Hindu mandir, and a spiritual-cultural campus in New Delhi, India. Also referred to as Akshardham Temple or Swaminarayan Akshardham, the complex displays millennia of traditional Hindu and Indian culture, spirituality, and architecture.
